May 6, 1988 - November 5, 2009

Christopher Faller, 21, Bismarck died November 5, 2009, in Bismarck. A mass of Christian burial Celebration of Life will be held on Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. at Church of St. Anne in Bismarck with Father Ed Wehner officiating. Visitation will be Tuesday from 12:00 – 9:00 p.m. at Parkway Funeral Service, 2330 Tyler Parkway, Bismarck, where a prayer service will be held at 7:00 p.m. Visitation will continue on Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at Parkway Funeral Service. Chris was born May 6, 1988, in Bismarck to Joe and Dawn Faller. He was raised and educated in Bismarck where he attended Saxvik Elementary, Simle Junior High, and graduated from Bismarck High School in 2007. While attending BHS he participated in band playing the drums, football, and track where he especially loved running with his teammates on the 4x100 relay. Chris currently was attending the University of Mary majoring in Business, participating in track as an athlete and most recently began student coaching. His passion was to coach. Chris had many jobs but the one he enjoyed the most was working for Pride as a Youth Mentor. He loved working with the children and they enjoyed being with him. Chris enjoyed life to the fullest and always had a smile for you. He was very competitive and loved to compete with his dad, grandpa Wyckoff, and his uncles at golf. His real passion was football. He has and always will be a fan of the Oakland Raiders. Through the ups and downs of the team he is still a fan. Chris enjoyed annoying his Mom by reciting lines from the many movies he watched. Chris is survived by his parents, Joe and Dawn; his little sister,

Amy; grandmother, Lu Faller; grandparents, Wayne and Marge Wyckoff; great-grandparent, Anton Heidt; aunts Cindy Craig Helm, Carol Faller and friend Wayne; uncles, Terry and friend Janet, Tom Letty, Gerry Luci, and Travis Elvira Wyckoff; and many cousins, David Sandi Helm, Brian Jen Helm, Tatiana Torres, Nicole and son Phillip, and Katherine Gloria, Roman, Olivia, and John Faller, Alexis and Jessica Faller, Ella and Gwen Wyckoff. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Leo R. Faller; his great-grandmother, Ann Heidt; and our dog, Meeko. In lieu of flowers, the family prefers memorials to Pride, Inc. or charity of choice.

“ Chris is an angel. I never heard Chris say one bad thing about anyone or anything for that matter. He was selfless and thought of others above all. Every time I saw him he had a smile on his face and once you saw that smile you couldn't help but smile along with him. Chris never cared what anyone thought and he always made me feel like the most important person in the world when we spoke. I regret not seeing you once more. “ Joe, Dawn, and Amy, We are so very sad to hear about your and everyone's loss. As our neighbor, he would come over and play basketball with our children. He had a special way of bringing out the best in everyone he came in contact with. As an 8th grade student, he came to class every day ready to learn and he brightened up the room with his smile and never-ending positive attitude. As a football athlete for BHS, he is remembered by his speed and the way he so naturally shifted from side to side breaking tackles as he ran toward the end zone. His work ethic, talent and genuine smile were admirable. Our prayers, thoughts, and love are with you during this difficult time. Mark, Lori, Alexis, Tyson, Hayden and Trenton.

“ Chris I will truly miss you. We met way back when in Cass Lake, MN at Stony Point Resort. Your family stayed a couple cabins down from mine. I remember seeing you run across the volleyball court to hurry to your boat and head out to ski. Me, my sister, and all of the Zigrossi cousins were already awaiting your arrival the next year because the second week at the lake was never as fun as the first without you and Tatiana, and Nicole. I always wanted to get to know you, and thought you were so much fun. I loved that we have kept in touch since the lake. Talking to you via facebook chat everyday was something I always looked forward to. I was really looking forward to planning to meet up over our winter break, and bringing you to Chicago someday to visit. Now we will just postpone reuniting until I see you again someday because I will, I promise you. You had such a good heart and always knew how to make me smile. Rest in peace Chris. “ Our thoughts are with your family. Chris mentored our grandson Jesse, thru the Pride org. for the past two years. He was scheduled to have Jesse every Sunday this month for 3 hours. Chris was always smiling and encouraging Jesse with activities that "kept him moving". Jesse was very sad when he heard about Chris, but we've encouraged him to think about the good times. Chris was a positive influence on his life. We will remember Chris, his smile, and pleasant personality for a long time. He brought positive things into our grandsons life.

Even though we didn't hang out much, or even know each other very well, you still have a place in my heart. To Chris's family and friends: a great place to help you grieve is "Good Grief". This is a free support group for anyone who is experiencing grief after a death. It is held at Medcenter One College for Nursing. They have 5 sessions each Monday for 5 weeks. I believe they have 2 sessions a year. The number is 323-6376. This helped my family grieve after the loss of my mother in 2007. Anyone can go to this, you don't have to be family. Their goal is to help EVERYONE who needs help with the grieving process. They are a wonderful group.

“ My heart goes out to you during this very difficult time, and throughout the difficult days and times ahead. I never knew Chris, but after reading all of the wonderful tributes, I am certain I would have loved him! Surround yourself with the wonderful things of who Chris was ... someone who smiled and had a positive attitude, someone who put others before himself, someone who freely gave his time to others ... it takes a very special person to mentor others. Take care of each other ... you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Dawn, Joe, Amy, Lu & Family, My deepest sympathy and prayers for you all at this time of great loss with Christopher's death. We will never understand death and certainly not when someone so young is called HOME. May you be comforted in knowing and trusting that Chris is now enjoying the peace and wholeness for which we were born. Keep the wonderful memories alive of your life with Chris. They will nourish and sustain you through life. Those we truly love never really leave us; they live on somewhere deep inside our hearts. Peace & Love, Sister Ann Schoch, SSND

“ To the family ~ I have only had the pleasure of meeting Chris once or twice but I was around his father while over-seas and he talked about him frequently. You could tell by the way Joe discussed him and how his eyes lit up with enthusiasm how much he meant to him, and it was obvious from his past that he means a lot to a lot of people! My thoughts and prayers go out to you all! If there is anything I can do please call me. Thoughts and Prayers Jay Lampert

“ Chris, I will never forget all the great times we had in track. You made every practice, bus ride, and meet that much better. You were a stud on and off the track. All the great times we had at school, at breakfast, and lunch were my favorite memories. I will always remember you, you are in a better place now in the heavens. Lay in peace my friend, I will see you again one day. Love, Calvin B Anderson

“ Chris thanks for all the laughs, and the support. I still remember watching you yell and wave one of the flags for the basketball team our senior year. It was hard to stay focused and not laugh with some of the things you and the others would come up with to say. You will always be a great friend, take care you will be greatly missed.

“ Chris was one of my best friends back in the day. We have had a lot of good times together. We will miss his goofy grin and his incredible ability to just listen and be a great friend. We never thought he looked much like a Chris so we called him Ned for the years i was friends with him, still no explanation to the nickname, but he somehow was ok with that. Our condolences for the family, know that Chris has touched all of our lives in one way or another and he will be greatly missed. Love, Chelsey, Todd, and Peggy

“ When I moved here in August to coach at UMary, it was a difficult thing to do. Chris made that much easier for me by his constant friendliness and willingness to share a laugh with me. Chris always made me so welcome and at home when I was around him, and my heart now goes out to your family. You raised a wonderful son, and he will greatly be missed. God Bless you all.

“ Joe, Dawn, Amy, and extended family -Wishing you God's comfort and a peace beyond understanding. A church so full of Chris' many friends, and tributes that express how much joy and good he brought to many lives, is testimony to the good person Chris is. Young people who reach out to work with the disabled, as Chris did for PRIDE, truly have a giving and caring heart. In your deep sadness may you also feel so very proud.

“ Christopher Faller was the most amazing guy I will ever know! No matter what kind of day I was having...he always made me smile. I got the privilege of seeing him October 20th. He surprised me in Fargo and we had an awesome night together. I will always have those memories and i'm so glad. I loved Chris and always will. He will forever be in my heart and no one will ever compare to him. We joked all the time and I never laughed more than when I did with Chris. Toph, as I always called him, was my best friend and my rock. I will never forget him EVER!! Our 3 years of friendship was the best 3 years I could have asked for. So many things we never got to do. I just anticipate the day I will see him again and can give him the biggest hug ever. You are forever missed Christopher Faller. I love you! Ashley

“ For those of you who didn't know Chris very long before this Tragic event... Let me feel you in: He was one of the most amazing people I have ever met. He would literally give the shirt off of his back to help out one of his friends! He always knew just what he had to do to make me smile... All he had to say was... "Melissa, I love you!!!" And it worked everytime. Him and I were great friends and a few teachers at BHS may say that we were even TROUBLE when we would team up... Let me just go on the record saying that Chris Faller and I got more Caramel Roll days in Mr. Weigum's class than any other BHS students!!!! We were also known for screwing up on our labs in that class! Chris is an amazing person... It took me a while to do this because I just kept hoping that I would wake up and this would all just be a bad dream. When I think about Chris it is bitter sweet... He was truly an amazing friend and although he isn't here physically, I know that I just need to picture him with that one of a kind smile and those words "Melissa, I love you!" and I am okay. He is now with me always! "Chris... I LOVE YOU!!!" RIP

“ Joe, we've known each other for years, and it's difficult to express the sorrow. I have never met your son, but have heard good things about him, and if he is anything like his parents, the world is a worse place without him in it. May peace come to you and your family.

“ Dear Dawn, Joe, Amy, and Family our deepest sympathy and prayers are extended to all of you during this very difficult time. Chris was always smiling and encouraging the children with their activities and homework. Pride and the children are better off for knowing Chris.
