

Dalorus Layton

March 25, 1921 - February 24, 2008

Dalorus Lorraine Layton, 86, passed away on February 24, 2008, at the Benedictine Living Center in Garrison, ND. Burial will be at Greenwood Cemetery in Mobridge, SD. At Dalorus' request, no services will be held. Dalorus was born on March 25, 1921, in Ashley, ND, the daughter of Margaret Heinz and Albert Mayer. She attended school in Bismarck, graduating in May 1939. On June 3, 1939, she married John Layton and they moved to Beulah, ND, to start their life together. Dalorus and John had six children, David, Sharon, Virginia, Linda, Ralph, and Cheryl. In 1954, the family moved to Bismarck where they resided until moving to Mobridge, SD, in 1967. She enjoyed taking care of her family, sewing, bowling, and church work at First Baptist Church. Upon retirement from Anthony's in Mobridge, Dalorus returned to Bismarck where she stayed until entering the Benedictine Living Center in December 2006, where she received excellent, loving care from the whole staff. She will be missed greatly. Dalorus is survived by her children, David Barb of Norfolk, VA, Linda Bob of Bismarck, Ralph Barb of Bismarck, and Cheryl Lewis of Lancaster, CA; seventeen grandchildren; twenty great-grandchildren; one brother, Elden, and two sisters, Rena and Adelaine. She was preceded in death by her husband of 36 years, John; her daughters, Virginia and Sharon; her sister, Doris; her brother, Albert; and her parents. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Benedictine Living Center in Garrison, the Lupus Foundation, or the Parkinson Foundation.

“ I was one of the people who were lucky enough to be able to take care of Dalorus. I was so sad to read she had passed away. I remember doing her hair, and painting her nails. She loved looking nice and she was a beautiful lady. I will miss her very much. Thank you for letting me take care of her.
