“ I went to High School with Danine. We didn't hang out with the same groups of people, but there were a few times we'd sit on the steps in-between classes and chat. I always found her to be nice and friendly. She was quiet when there were a lot of people, but when it was just her and I we could chat quite easily. I wish I'd have gotten to know her better than just those few minutes in the stairwell in-between classes. I may not have known her well, but it saddens me all the same to see a classmate passing. My thoughts, prayers and sympathies to her family. May you find peace during this time.

“ Mike, and the rest of Danine's family, I am so terribly sorry for your loss. I only knew her a short few years and was just starting to get to know her better. She had a beautiful smile and an equally beautiful soul that just ... shined. I cannot imagine your loss and I send my sincere, heartfelt condolences. Mike, if you need anything, you know where to find us. Al, Joe, Mandy, and I are all so very, very sorry

“ Pam and Dan. I am sure the most sincerest of condolences cannot ease your pain at this time. My heart just breaks at your loss. No parent should ever go through what has happened. I just pray you have faith that the good Lord had a reason for calling Danine home so early in her life. Hold tight to the wonderful memories created, and I pray you find peace. Love, Beanie
