

Della Erickson

October 4, 1913 - March 23, 2009

Della Erickson, 95, Bismarck, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Monday, March 23. Services will be held at 3:30 pm Saturday at the Salvation Army Chapel, 601 South Washington Street, Bismarck, with Rev. Curt Dikoff officiating. Burial will be held in the spring in the Tappen City Cemetery. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service. Della was born October 4, 1913, in Tappen, ND, the daughter of Oscar and Ella Erickson. Her father was a former North Dakota Insurance Commissioner and State Senator who inspired Della to get involved in politics. She was actively involved with the North Dakota Republican Party for more than 60 years. She was a member of the Evangelical Church of Bismarck. For 25 years Della and her sister Helen owned and operated the Bible and Book Store on Fifth Street in Bismarck. Della is survived by a number of cousins on both sides of the family. She was preceded in death by her father, Oscar Erickson; her mother, Ella Berry Erickson, and her sister, Helen Erickson. Della was a dear lady and will be missed by all who knew her.

“ Della was a very caring and wonderful women. I enjoyed working for her at the Bible Book store. I learned many things while working for her, such as preparing Sunday School supplies, Vacation Bible School supplies, arranging items in the store. She encouraged me to read books so that I could better sell them to customers. Teresa
