

Doris Jean Deckert

December 29, 1923 - January 30, 2008

Doris Jean Deckert, 84, Wing, died January 30, 2008 at a Bismarck Hospital. Services will be held at 2:00 pm Tuesday at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Wing with Rev. Muriel Lippert officiating. Burial will be in Bethlehem Lutheran Church Cemetery, Wing. Visitation will be held from 1:00 pm until 9:00 pm Sunday and from 9:00 am until 9:00 pm Monday at Eastgate Funeral Service, Bismarck and continue one hour prior to services at the church. Doris Jean was born December 29, 1923 in Streeter, ND, the daughter of Walter Ray and Martha Fode Morrison. She was raised and educated in Gackle, ND. Doris Jean married Henry Deckert on August 15, 1942, in Jamestown, ND. Following their marriage, they farmed south of Arena. In 1974 they moved into Wing. Henry died in 1975 and Doris Jean continued living in Wing. Her church family and friends were very important to her. She quilted and enjoyed gardening for many years. Because education was important to her, after Henry's death she obtained her GED. Doris Jean showed an interest in people and would always ask about what they did and who they were. She is survived by her children, Garry and Joann Deckert of Bismarck, ND, Dennis and Charleen Deckert of Wing, ND, Sandra and Ronald Bird of Kenneth, MN and Randal Deckert of Rugby, ND and her former daughter-in-law, Melissa Deckert of Rugby, ND; her 12 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren; her sisters, Lois Simonson of Portland, OR and Marlys Krein of The Dalles, OR; her brother, Franklin and Kathy Morrison of Portland, OR. She is also survived by her special neighbors, the Braun's Mike, Rhonda, Hannah and Amber and her good friend, Jim Berger. She was preceded in death by her husband; her daughter, Carla Jean; her parents; her sister, Thelma and her brothers, Ralph, Leon and Charles.
