“ My deepest sympathy to all of Fred's family. As a first cousin of Fred's I have good memories of family holidays playing games with Fred. I looked forward to our trips to Bismarck and stopping at Walt and Lorraine's house to see him. My mom has the sweetest picture of Fred and I when we were just little tots. May he rest in peace.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. We have many memories of happier days with Fred in Hazen. He was a kind and gentle soul and we are so saddened by his passing. Debl knew Fred well. He just loved all sports and knew a lot of stats, he loved watching my boys play hockey. He was always so proud of his daughters and loved them and Kim dearly. Always impressed me with his intelligence and was great to work with at DGC. I have missed you for a long time already. Rod Love Rod & Deb Sargent
