

Gail Sorch

October 12, 1940 - August 7, 2009

Gail M. Sorch, 68, Wilton, died August 7, 2009. Services will be held at 2:30 pm Monday at First Presbyterian Church, Wilton, with Rev. Cathy Bliss officiating. Burial will be held in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Bismarck. Visitation will be held from 2:00 pm until 9:00 pm Sunday at Eastgate Funeral Service, Bismarck. Visitation will continue one hour prior to the service at the church. Gail was born October 12, 1940, at Wilton, ND, the daughter of Mike and Olga Sawicki Laughlin. She grew-up and attended school at Wilton, graduating from Wilton High School in 1959. After graduation, she moved to Bismarck where she worked briefly as a waitress and then with the State Tax Department for five years. On January 11, 1964, she married Lawrence Sorch in Wilton, where they made their home. Gail enjoyed gardening, cooking, reading and fancy work. She was an elder on the church board, served on the session, funeral and memorial committees. She is survived by her husband, Lawrence, Wilton; her three sons, Kelly special friend, Sandy Reule, Elko, NV, Jeff Shanna, Gillette, WY, and Rick, Wilton; her mother, Olga, Wilton; her sister and brothers, Norma Jeff Hochhalter, Wilton, Chuck Laughlin, Gillette, WY, Bob Sonja Laughlin, Gillette, WY, and Rod Rose Laughlin, Fargo; and her three grandchildren, Joshua, Cole, and Brandan Sorch. She was preceded in death by her father, Mike.

“Gail was a dear freind and neighbor. It was always a special treat when she stopped by to visit. It was extra special when she brought treats. She will be missed and remembered for all our lives. Our deepest sympathy goes to the family. Gail was like family and life will not be the same without her. We wish we could be there for the final visit and goodbye. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
