“ Mr. Holle was always fair and kind to us kids when he was the school superintendent in Napoleon. Mr. & Mrs. Holle opened up their home to a bunch of us when we were teenagers and mentored us in the Christian faith, not only by their words but also by their actions of love. I'm now a mother and a homeschool teacher -- with teenagers always in our home, and I'm often reminded of this Godly couple! My prayers and sympathy are with Mrs. Holle and the family.

“ Mr. Holle as I remember calling him was a very kind loving man. I have many fond memories playing with Cheryl at their home in Kulm, I always felt so welcome. I especially remember the ice slide he made out of a snow bank in their back yard. Such fun, and fond memories as a kid. Rest in Peace Mr. Holle you were a special man that touched many hearts.Linda Hehr Smith

“ We were so sorry to hear of Gil's passing. LaVerne and Gil were dear friends and relatives to Leonard and Selma Moore. They were in the education profession with them and Selma was from the New Salem area also. They remained in contact with both of them throughout out the years until recently. She will remember Gil and LaVerne with fondness and wishes LaVerne and her family well. Gil will be missed and we offer our deepest condolences.

“ I am a former student of Mr. Holle. He was very dedicated to his profession and seemed to greatly enjoy his students. I was in high school and certainly didn't appreciate his abilities and talents. I understand that much better now. He also taught Sunday School for the upper grades in our church in Kulm ND and I now wish I could relive some of those classes. He was warm, intelligent and a great example for students.

“ I enjoyed the evening at Primetimers when Gil and LaVern shared an evening of memories centered around their teaching professions. Table decorations as well as other momentos were part of the evenings' charm. What a couple!!! Jeff and I were blessed many times by their kind words and encouragement. Where one was, the other was too, so to share just about Gil...is difficult.
