“ I do not know you, but my heart breaks for you. I lost twins by still birth almost 2 years ago and the grief is overwhelming and a journey to find how you will live life now.I found much hope, understanding ears, and relief from the group Angel Babies in town. It is at Spirit of Life church in Mandan once a month. All of us there have lost our babies during pregnancy or during infancy.Take care. You are in my prayers.

“Lori, I know we have never met. But, I feel like I know you. Marcy has shared everything with me, from the time Jordon was born until now. I hope you understand that you have been, and always will be, a part of my prayer chain. This prayer chain extends from my home to Puerto Rico, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, California, and everywhere in between. If there is ever anything you need, or if you just want to talk....please give me a call or send me an e-mail. I hope I don't run out of room, but I want to share with you my umbrella story. We had two suicides, at work, in six months. After the second suicide, I was understandably distraught and couldn't sleep. I prayed like I haven't prayed, in a long time. It seemed that I had an eight page prayer request. When I finished, I felt calmer and was ready to try and fall asleep. Instead of sleep, that silly song by Rihanna "Umbrella", began to play in my head. Not the whole song, but the chorus. "Under my umbrella...ella.....ella.....ella...ay.. ay...ay Under my umbrella". Now, let me tell you that I cannot stand that song. I asked God to get that stinking song out of my head. Because I knew I certainly couldn't sleep with that chorus playing over and over and over in my head. Even though I asked, prayed, and begged for that song to stop playing, it continued. After the tenth time hearing that chorus, it became clear to me. It was not Rihanna singing. It was God telling me that He is my umbrella. Our shelter from the storms in life. I am willing to share my umbrella with you....at anytime. Please don't ask if you can borrow it....just take it when you feel the need. Remember, if you need anything....other than my umbrella, just ask and I will try my best to help. With God's love and prayers~Tina, Erin, and Beth

“ I'm just a little baby who didn't get to stay there; I went to be with Jesus but I'm waiting for you here. Don't you fret about me mommy I'm of all God's most blessed I'd have loved to stay there with you but Heavenly Father knows what's best. Many who dwell here where I live waited years to enter in, they struggled through a world of sorrow and their lives were marred with sin. So sweet mommy don't be sad, wipe those tears and chase the gloom, I went to be with Jesus, from my lovely mothers arms. Thank you for the life you gave me, it was brief but don't complain; I have all of heaven's glory suffering none of the world's pain. Thank you for the name you gave me, I'm thankful for all you've done. I'll be waiting here for you in heaven up above. I would have loved to stay with you, And lived life by your side, But the Lord has called me home, I know it's hard to understand why. Thank you mommy for making me, You made me out of love, I can't wait for the day I see you again So you can see what I've become. I'm an angel here in heaven, The Lord's here by my side, He wants me to let you know He's sorry he made you cry. He has a plan for me up here, And a plan for you here too, Someday we'll be together again, And this I know is true. Lori, we know Hailey is up flying with the angels but it is never easy. Just remember if you need anything we are always here. We love you!
