“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Harold many years and he was good salesman that had the interest of his customers always in mind. He was not afraid to go the extra mile and do what he could to help the customer. He was pretty darn good operator as well. I always enjoyed when Harold would stop to see us when he was in town. We will miss him.

“ Karen and family: So sorry for your loss. Harry was such a kind-hearted special man who we are so glad was able to be a part of our lives. I can still see that grin on his face I saw in the nursing home every time we were there these past few weeks, even when he wasn't feeling well. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.
