

Irving Leblang

March 22, 1923 - September 1, 2008

Irving Leblang, 85, passed away in Bismarck, ND, on September 1, 2008. Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 11:30 AM at Parkway Funeral and Cremation Service in Bismarck with Rabbi Janeen Kobrinsky officiating. Burial was held at St. Mary's Cemetery with military honors provided by Bismarck Amvets. Irv was born on March 22, 1923, in New York City, NY, the son of Jennie and Louis Leblang. He was graduated from Stuyvesant High School, class of 1940, where he was a member of Arista and managed the basketball team. He volunteered for service in the U.S. Army where he served in England and Ireland during World War II. On return, he began a lifelong career in the textile industry in New York City, served as a member of the American Arbitration Association and traveled extensively here and abroad. Irv enjoyed weekends on his New England farm, was an avid reader, and enjoyed politics. He was a man of integrity and exceptional character, possessing many fine qualities, and he will be deeply missed by his many friends and family. Irv is survived by his wife of almost 40 years, Dotty of Bismarck; as well as two children from a previous marriage, Richard of Bismarck and Cheri Len Rosenberg of Miami; his grandson, Jared Karen Rosenberg; his great-grandson, Jake; his niece, Janyce Marson of New York City; and his nephew, Jeffrey Marson of Palo Alto.
