“ Ardis S.I'm so sorry for the loss of your husband, father, grandfather, and friend. I met Jack as a freshman at Mandan High School, 60 years ago. He was a very kind and good hearted person. I remember how excited he was when he received his Honorable Discharge from the Marines, after high school,when he brought it to the Morton County Courthouse to show it to me, where I was working at the time. He's in Gods company now; may he rest in peace.

“ So sorry for your families loss. A few years ago I worked in the mortgage and consumer loan departments at a local bank and Jack did a lot of our appraisals. He was such a nice guy and always happy and smiling and whistling a tune. May he rest in peace and God Bless your family.

“ I didn't know Jack well but he taught me a lesson years ago about priorities, something that I have continued to refer to over the years. I had just started in real estate and I was really excited about my first deal. I called Jack to set up an appointment for something that I thought was really important and that had to be done immediately. He told me, "Sorry, I can't meet with you this afternoon. I have an appointment to take my grandson for a haircut." It was a great lesson for me about keeping my priorities in check..
