“ Lavern and all of Jenifer's family:Our deepest condolences to you in the loss of your dear loved one and our dear friend, Jenifer. She will be greatly missed. She fought the fight galantly but God must have seen her suffering and took her Home to be with Him. She had such a deep Christian Faith...a model for each of us. .. "Jenifer, Well done, good and faithful servant". We will always remember Jenifer, and are deeply saddened by her loss. We will remember our good times together as friends in our "lunch bunch" and in Bible Study together, and working with her in the Lab at Medcenter One. With Deepest Sympathy,Dick & Shirley Dietrich

“ What a privilege it has been to know Jenifer - we shared much - and especially the last couple of years comparing 'chemo-notes' and celebrating when our hair came back. She is so loved - and will be missed so much.Love, Carol.

“ Jennifer was a very good friend and co-worker. She was always a willing listener and there when someone needed a person to talk to. She could be trusted to keep confidentialities. We shared a mutual love for animals of which I have many and so did she. They were a special part of her life. We've all lost a wonderful person but, knowing her faith and belief in God, I know she's in heaven with her Father where she will no longer have to suffer.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. The lost of a love one is the most painful experience we have in life. It would be great if death didn't exist, if life never ended in a world that was beautiful and peaceful and everyone loved one another. This can be a reality for us if we learn to love Jehovah and Jesus Christ. They promise we will see our loved ones again, happy and healthy.

“ LaVern, It is difficult coming to grips with Jenifers' homecoming if it weren't for the fact that she ran the race with ALLLLLLL that she had. What spirit Jen displayed all these years. My memories of her steadfast consciousness for a healthier lifestyle of cooking let me know she did all within her power to be her best. You benefited from it too, by the looks of things. Your shared interest in providing loving care for your pets will long be memorialized in your friends hearts. So Jen, go rest high on that mountain...your work on earth is done...Go to heav'n a shoutin'...Love for your Father and His Son. Bon voyage, my forever friend. I loved you.
