

Joseph Bauer

June 28, 2002 - January 20, 2007

Our darling little cowboy, Joseph "Joey" Bauer, rode into Heaven on January 20, 2007, to join the angels and to be with the rest of his heavenly family. Funeral services will be Thursday at 11:00 AM at First Lutheran Church in Bismarck with Pastor Allen Wagner and Pastor Jack Eichhorst officiating. Burial will be at the Moffit Cemetery. Visitation will be Wednesday from 9:00 AM - 9:00 PM at Parkway Funeral Service and will continue Thursday one hour prior to the service at the church. Joseph was born on June 28, 2002, the son of Dustin and Jessi Mills Bauer. He was a very energetic little boy with a smile that melted your heart and he made sure you knew he was in the same room because he had to show you every toy he had. He loved his mom and dad, his grandparents, and his family. He also loved his horse, Coco, his dog, Willie, and his fish, Bubbles. He is survived by his parents, Dustin and Jessi Bauer of Moffit; his grandparents, Joe and Vicky Mills of Moffit, Harold and Emilie Heinle of Bismarck, and Larry and Shirley Bauer of Bismarck; his great-grandparents, Frank and Vera Risovi of Harvey, Gottlieb Bauer of Turtle Lake, Tony and Rose Mosbrucker of Center, and Mary Klein of Bismarck; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his great-grandparents, Elise Bauer, Ted Klein, and Elmer and Ann Mills; his cousin, Robbie Rahrlich; and many aunts and uncles.

“ Jessi & Dustin, Josh & I want you to know that we are so sorry for your loss. I know there are no words that can make you feel better or change things that have happened, but please know that family is the best medicine a person can have. And trust me we have lots of that!! God bless you and make sure you take care of yourselves. Love you Nicole & Josh

“ Dustin and Jessi, We are very sorry to hear of your loss, we want you to know that you and your family are in our prayers, and thinking of you. The service was beautiful and we could feel the love you have for your son. Thinking of you all in your time of sorrow, I also wanted to let you know that I spoke with Sally and Matt and they too are thinking of you both. If either of you want to talk or feel like taking a drive give Chris and I a call. Catherine

“ I did not know you but as a mother I want to extend my prayers as you. My mother passed away in August and someone sent me this poem. I hope it gives some peace. I am standing on the seashore, A ship appears and spreads it's white sailsto the morning breeze and starts for the ocean. He is an object of beauty and I stand watching himtill at last he fades away on the horizon, and someone at my side quietly says, "He is gone." Gone where? Gone from my vision, that is all; He is just as large as when I saw him last. The diminished size and the total loss of sightis in me, not in him, and just as the momentwhen someone at my side says, "He is gone," There are others who are watching himcoming and other voices take up a joyful shout, "Here he comes!" God Bless you and your family.

“ Dear little Joey, you had a very special place in my heart. You were a character. Always showing me all of your toys and the new tricks you learned. I am grateful that we played games at Christmas time. You made my face light up everytime I seen you, even if I had to see them in pictures. I was so proud of my godson. I would show you to everyone and say look at my godson isn't he cute. God bless you little Joey. I will miss you!!Love, Auntie Sheila

“Joey you will be missed very much and you are in everyone's heart, you touched so many lives in several different ways. Jessi and Dustin so sorry for your loss and may God watch over you both as you get thru this. Love you both. To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say...but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay. I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above. Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love. Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight. Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night. That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through, God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you." It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone. As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on. I need you here badly; you're part of my plan. There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man. "God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do. And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you. And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight. God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night. When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears. But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain. Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain. I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned. But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand. But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is over. I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before. There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb; but together we can do it by taking one day at a time. It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you. If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night..... "My day was not in vain." And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile. So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go. When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind; I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind. And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me. Ruth Ann Mahaffey author
