“ Aunt Angie, Cindy, and Sheri, I will always remember the fun summer BBQ's at your house. Those are the good times that I will cherish as I pray that you all find peace. We have another guardian angel in heaven who will be looking over all of us. Rest in peace, Uncle Joe.

“ I had only received several different words from Joe the most often was an "MMHMM". But once I asked him about a mark on his foot and immediatly started telling me a story. He loved his chocolate sometimes I would actually bring him chocolate just for a word or two extra. This is my fondest memory of Joe. He was always quiet when I knew him but this was a very big relieve. My condolences go out to his daughter Cindy and his wife Angie. Joe, may you rest in peace.
