

Judith Smith Young

March 28, 1953 - May 17, 2010

Judith Smith Young, 57, a native of Bismarck, died May 17, 2010, in Ormond Beach, FL, following a year-long battle with cancer. A 1971 graduate of St. Mary's Central High School, she attended Creighton University and taught English and French in Nebraska and Florida. She is survived by her beloved husband, John Young; sister, JeAnne Fogarty; nephews, Errol and Phineas Fogarty; and two great-nephews, Quinn and Samuel Fogarty, all residents of Florida.¹ Thessalonians 4:14 Soli Deo Gloria

Tribute Wall

SL

“ To the family of Judith Smith Young: My deep sympathy and prayers for you all. I was Judy's first grade teacher at Cathedral Grade School; at that time I was Sister Yvonne. Judy was a wonderful student, delightful, bright and creative. I know she was a great teacher, creative and energetic. She will be missed. I would have enjoyed meeting you, John. May Judy know God's loving embrace of joy and peace. May you all be consoled with trust in God's love and the support of friends and relatives. Sincerely, Sister Susan Lardy

Sister Susan Lardy - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM