“Jen and family, I am so sorry about the loss of your mom. She was a sweet, classy, beautiful lady that had a huge heart and loved you all so much. She loved to catch up when I would see her. She always had wonderful things to say about you Jen, and was so very proud of you and all you have accomplished and loved Alexa and Aydan so very much, she was a proud Grandma and Mom. Like I have said already, she may not be here physically, but she is still with you. Love you so much. ~Nancy~

“I am very sorry to hear of Louellas passing. Although I haven't seen her since 1956, I often thought of her. I was on the ZX ranch and I used to go horseback riding around the country and to wing for a malt, it was all a fun time with Louella. you all have my sympathy.

“Jen and Family, My heart and thoughts have been with you since I heard the news. It is never easy to lose a parent or loved one whether expected or unexpected. Please know that even though we can not know why now, faith will give an answer soon. I am sorry I will not make it to the service but know Jon and I have and will continue to pray to give you strength. Now is a crazy time and I don't want to bother you with additional phone calls. But know if you need an ear don't hesitate to call. Love you!

“ Joe, Jeff, Mike, Pat adn Jennifer and grandchildren and great grandchild. What a shock. Lou was my favorite sister still alive, I will miss her dearly, even though we are hundreds of miles apart. God Bless you all and I will keep you in my prayers. Your grief will slowly subside, but never forget her, as I will not. Your lovingly sister-in-law and aunt. Bernie Roger Also, Ken gives his regrets.

“ Jen, I'm so sorry about your mom. I've been wanting to call you, but have held off, it isn't because I don't care or that I'm not thinking of you. It's because it's what I would want if this happened to my mom. I know you have so many things to deal with at this time. You don't need a million phone calls on top of it all. Just know I'm so very sorry for your loss. Your mom was a super lady. I'm so glad I got to see her before Christmas. If you need anything don't hesitate to call me at anytime. I love you. Kerry.
