

Marilyn Bry

August 26, 1932 - February 27, 2004

Marilyn E Daley Bry, 5000 Willow Oaks Road, Bismarck, North Dakota, died Friday, February 27, 2004, at the Missouri Slope Lutheran Care Center. Graveside services will be Wednesday at 12:00 noon at the ND Veteran's Cemetery in Mandan. Visitation will be Tuesday from 9 AM - 9 PM at Eastgate Funeral Service where prayer service will be held at 7:00 PM. A memorial service will also be held on March 13, at 11:00 AM at House of Prayer Lutheran Church in Bismarck. Marilyn was born August 26, 1932 in rural Hoople, North Dakota, the daughter of Alfred and Gertrude Widme Daley. She was raised in Park River, received her high school diploma, and attended the Deaconess School of Nursing in Grand Forks, receiving her degree in 1953. She married Ed Bry on October 10, 1954, in Hoople, ND. They moved to Belfield, ND in 1955 and to Bismarck in 1963. Marilyn worked as Registered Nurse at Medcenter One and later in the Education Department. She worked as a family liaison in the Intensive Care Unit at Medcenter One late in her nursing career. The families of patients were very grateful to Marilyn for her care and loving consideration. She retired in 1995. She was active in her church and loved singing in the choir. Marilyn enjoyed everything beautiful in life such as flower gardens, sunsets, music and small animals. She also enjoyed traveling. She visited Alaska with her husband, Ed, and Thailand, Norway, England, and the Caribbean with her children. She will always be remembered as a very giving person. She is survived by her four sons and two daughters in law, Don Bry, Minneapolis, Tom and Ann Bry, Bismarck, Bob and Brenda, Bismarck, and Jonathan, Bismarck; two granddaughters, Tessa, Minneapolis, and Maureen, Bismarck; and seven grandsons, Erik, Grand Forks, Thomas, Curt, Joel and Alec, Bismarck, Josh, Seattle, and Jake, Fargo. She was preceded in death by her husband Ed; her parents; two brothers, Ralph and Ardell; and infant sister, Elenor. The family would like memorial gifts given to the One Club or donor's choice.
