

Marlyn Singer

July 3, 1940 - July 23, 2006

Marlyn Singer, 66, Bismarck, died July 23, 2006 at Medcenter One after suffering a massive stroke. Services will be held at 10:00 AM Wednesday at Faith Lutheran Church, Bismarck, with the Rev. Wes Aardahl officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery at a later date. Visitation will be from 5:00 to 9:00 PM Tuesday at Eastgate Funeral Service and one hour prior to the service. Marlyn was born July 3, 1940, the daughter of Arthur and Emma Pischel Wiedrich. Marlyn grew up and was educated in the Beulah-Hazen area. She married Arlo "Blackie" Singer on February 13, 1965. Together they had one daughter, Denice. Just recently she had been reunited with her other daughter, Twyla, that she had lovingly given up for adoption. Marlyn is survived by her two daughters and their families, Twyla of Hillsboro, OR, and her daughters, Alecia and Justin Qualey of Thief River, MN, and their three daughters, Megan and her daughter of Thief River, MN, and Erin of Beaverton, OR, and Denice and Bryan Haag and their son, Matthew of Mandan, ND; her sisters, Arlis Buchman of Zap, ND, Bernice Raszler of The Dalles, OR, and Verlen Wiedrich of Mandan, ND; her sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Evelyn Montgomery of Fargo, ND and Myron "Gene" Phyllis Singer of Valley City, ND; many nieces and nephews; and last but not least, her boy dog Sparky, who was the light of her life after Blackie died. She also will be gravely missed by her dear friend, Elizabeth "Betty" Byrne whom she cared for many years and also thought of as a mother. She will be missed a great deal by her two daughters and their families whom she recently had developed a great new relationship with. The family's Hawaiian trip was the highlight of her life. She left knowing her girls were sisters. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and three brothers.
