

Mary Ogan

May 1, 1927 - April 11, 2006

Mary S. Ogan, 78, Bismarck, died April 11, 2006 in a local hospital. Services will be held at 10:30 AM Tuesday at United Church of Christ, Bismarck, with the Rev. Jim Moos officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. There will be no visitation as cremation has taken place. Mary was born May 1, 1927, in Bismarck, the daughter of Carl and Katherine Rehling Dassinger. She was raised and educated in Hebron, ND, Detroit, MI, and Cincinnati, OH. She graduated from high school in Cincinnati. While living there she worked in retailing. At Hebron, she worked for J.C. Penney. In Bismarck, she was employed by Lee Stores and in 1969 began working for McCarney Ford as a cashier and bookkeeper. When the business was sold to Holmes Ford, then Eide Ford, she continued to work for them also. She retired from Eide Ford in 1985. She was married to Irvin Flemmer from 1946 to 1974. She married Daniel Ogan in Idaho on June 11, 1980. Following her retirement she and Dan traveled until Dan became ill. He passed away in 1995. She was active at the United Church of Christ, the Salem Circle and VFW Auxiliary. Mary is survived by her two sons, Warren Flemmer of Port St. Lucie, FL, and Clay Flemmer and Deb Johnson of Bismarck; one daughter, Lynn Brad Hunter of Apache Junction, AZ; one step-son, Daniel Mary Ann Ogan of Eau Claire, WI; two step-daughters, Margo Doyle and Marion Logan of Denver CO; one sister-in-law, Bonnie Dassinger of Cincinnati, OH; her grandchildren; great-grandchildren; special friends, Barb, Brandi and Marisa Myhre; and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Daniel; her parents; one son, Wade; her sisters, Lena and Alice; and her brothers, Adam, Joe and Carl. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given to the Building Fund of the United Church of Christ, 1200 East Highland Acres Rd., Bismarck, ND 58501.
