“ Became close to this wonderful lady when she moved into Bismarck. She reminded me of my own mother and was such a good listener. Her attitude was good and catchy and I looked forward to visiting with her. She seemed so brave and had a clear mind even though she had a difficult time talking and eating at last. I'm so glad I got to see her before I left town. Sorry I can't be there to console you all but our grief is sure. She will be missed. She made a difference.

“ I will miss Nyla dearly at the Baptist Home. Nyla and I would visit every evening I worked at the front desk. I knew her kids, I knew her grandchildren, I heard stories about her childhood, the farm, holidays and cooking. Her and I shared books and whenever someone would donate magazines, I would get her and Viola in the office and we would go through them first. I saw every puzzle she put together, I saw her Christmas presents. She worried about her illness. She was a delight to everyone sitting in the lobby. My heart goes out to her family and I will never forget her.
