“ I'm so sorry to hear of Peter's passing. He was a wonderful person that always had a warm smile to greet you. My mother, Ruth Backman was so exited to see Peter at the home and he to see her. He told me one time "the old memories never die". Peter will be greatly missed by those around him but we can rest assured he is in a better place.

“ Pete always came to me to have paperwork notarized. I always told him how much he reminded me of my Uncle Jack in Montana. On his last visit with me, Pete brought an envelope that hadn't been opened, and teased me about letting me open it "just in case there was a letter bomb" in it, all the while his eyes were twinkling!
