“ Sometimes it's hard to understand, why things happen as they do especially when you lose a baby to death. Although I have never met the family I was sorry to read Robert Brunson fell asleep in death. It will be particularly hard for you dear mother and difficult for the bereaved father and siblings . Don't be afraid to cry shedding tears of grief appears to be a necessary part of the healing process You may find that for a time your emotions will be somewhat unpredictable tears may flow without much advance warning be patient with yourself. The Bible assures us: “God is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.” Psalm 34:18 With sincere sympathy may these understanding thoughts help somehow to convey the sympathy that hearts can feel but words can never say.

“ Just wanted you to know I am thinking of you all at this sad time. I have enjoyed viewing the pictures of Robert, Joe and Ella and hearing of their progress and was so saddened to hear about Robert. We do not understand God's plan at these times but I think he was called for a much greater position and will live on forever in our hearts with his precious memory. Love Gramma
