

Robin Sease

September 13, 1960 - October 15, 2014

Robin Sease, 54, passed away October 15, 2014, at his Bismarck home. A private family service was held at Eastgate Funeral Service. Robin was born September 13, 1960 to Ray and Mae Sease. He lived and was educated in Bismarck, ND, and attended Bismarck State College where he received degrees in welding and mechanics. During his lifetime, all the jobs he had were in the mechanics and welding field. Robin also worked in his spare time on special projects with his father, who was a brilliant inventor doing customized design work for many large corporations and young business entrepreneurs. In April of 1989 Robin married Jodi Pederson. Together they had one son, Logan Sease. Logan was the joy of his life. The time they shared together was special and Robin helped teach Logan the trade of mechanics and welding, a field in which Logan was educated and uses in his employment today. Robin was a gifted artist and musician. Robin's brilliant artwork spanned many decades. Aside his personal work, in his spare time Robin would do sketches of individuals and family portraits for people in the area. Robin loved to play classical guitar and harmonica in his spare time as well as gardening. He enjoyed helping his father plant and care for the family garden every year, especially the fall bounty of pumpkins, squash, corn, and jalapeño peppers, and cucumbers which his parents canned every year for the neighborhood. Robin had a generous heart and great sense of humor. He helped his elderly parents cook and run errands whenever he could and brought joy and laughs with his quick wit and humor. Robin will be missed by all of those close to him. He leaves behind his mother, Mae Sease; one son, Logan Sease; three siblings, Jay Sease, Lynn Sease, and Tamara Holzer; four nieces; and one nephew. He was preceded in his death by his father, Raymond Sease, and his grandparents, Earl and Ada Sease and Emma and Martin Lang.
