“ Jan and I want send our words of sympathy to you! Aunt Rose was a wonderful woman. She was kind, curious, and always had that warm smile on her face. We last saw her when Jane and Joe Wolf had us all at their house for dinner. We had a great time. As might be expected, we talked about the "good old days". The days in Zeeland. Her memory of dates and situations was amazing. We'll miss not being there with you to celebrate a wonderful life by a wonderful woman. And to reminisce about us all growing up just a few miles apart on the farm. When I think about Rose, Tony and all of you, I remember the times we got TOO noisy playing upstairs at the farm house and Tony would come to the door at the bottom of the stairs to calmly tell us to quiet down. I also remember the farm equipment that our families shared. The 10' disc, the sprayer and the silage cutter. While we worked hard we also played hard. Leon, do you remember that you, Ralph Jangula and I are blood brothers?? I really don't know what that means, but we are. I think we got the idea from some TV western. Lotsa great memories. Aunt Rose called our house a few days before we left for Phoenix in early January.. She congratulated me on my retirement and wished us well on our trip to Arizona for the winter. I'll always remember that conversation. To think that she took the time to call Jan and I brings tears to my eyes now. Marlene, Rodney, Robert, Leon and Kenny, you were blessed to have had such a wonderful mother. We were all blessed that knew her and had the opportunity to spend some time with her. Take care and God Bless!! Francis and Jan Ziegler
