“Such a handsome young man we all loved! We will miss him and wonder at his loss. We remember a kind and loving friend to our son Casey and have many fond memories that we will treasure. He was Casey's best man at his wedding in 1998. We wish we knew all the right words to heal your pain, but words escape us at a time like this. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers. Our God is an awesome God and brings us all closer to him in these tradgedies. May you find comfort in the one who gave us Ryan to love and enjoy. God's blessings and comfort to you at this time. “ It is not until someone we love slips from our grasp that we realize the fragility of life. We remember Ryan as a guy who always had a smile on his face and a joke to tell. He will be forever missed by those of us lucky enough to have shared a little piece of his life. My God give you peace and strength in the days, months & years to come.

“ Ryan--you were such a lively cute kid. You kept me on my toes when I use to watch you. The things we use to do on the farm, from chasing baby cows to throwing rocks at the barn sparrows. I was always scared your parents would come home early and you would still be up with me watching a movie, or found out that you had a pop right before bed. Did we have fun.It was hard to see you grow up, you were such a friendly funny guy. I truely will miss you,your humor and most of all, your smile. Keep watch over us. Love your friend Laurie
