

Steven W Slagg

December 1, 1951 - July 20, 2011

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ With deepest sympathy.

Dale Kerzmann - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ With deepest sympathy at this difficult time..you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Eileen Miller - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BS

“ Gone, but not forgotten. Never! Steve was a big part of my life in my younger days. He helped me get through a tough time and for that, he will always be a part of my life. My prayers and thoughts are with the family.

Brenda Slagg - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CG

“ I felt so terribly sad to hear of Steve's passing. I have so many happy memories of time spent with Steve in our younger years. Whether it was spending time at Grandpa's and Grandma's house, or playing hide and seek at the farm, we always had a fun time. Even though I haven't seen Steve in some time, he has always had a special place in my heart and always will. I feel so bad.

Connie Giffey - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Such happy memories of our childhoods when we'd all get together for picnics, or I would get to stay at the farm for a visit. Memories of Steve's weekly letters to me when he was in Vietnam...he was so young while serving his country. If he could talk to us now, he would urge us to have a relationship with the most high God through His son, Jesus. Steve died on the 3rd anniversary of my son Rich's death. God bless the memories of Steve, I am so sad about his death! Didn't even know he was living in Bismarck.

Judy Hovde - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JE

“ Rest in Peace...on behalf of donavan,in this time of sorrow may you have peace...d

JessicaChristianson - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

HS

“ My we all be comforted by the fact that Steve is no longer suffering. He can rest and be at peace now. He will be dearly missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his two Children, Melanie & Donovan, and their Mother, Tammy. To Steve's Sister, Marsha, and his baby brother, Miles. He will never truly be gone from our lives if we choose to remember him in our hearts. Love you Uncle, Heather Slagg.

Heather Slagg - March 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM