“ Dear Connie and siblings, We are thinking of you at this sad time, and wish to send our heartfelt sympathy. It's not easy to let go of those we love, even though we know that is the Plan of God. We understand there is purpose to everything we experience. Death certainly causes us to think about God and our spirit which returns to Him. with love and care, Ruth Warner

“ Dear Family of Tim, I spent some time with Connie last winter. She spoke so kindly of each of you and her appreciation of you was obvious. I know this is a costly experience for you especially as you had no time to prepare yourselves for Tim's death and perhaps no opportunity for a last message. May you find comfort in the things that do not change and fail. Sincerely, Margaret Hanson

“ To all, I have known Tim for around 10 years and came to know him as part of our family here in Jamestown. He loved to crochet and just recently made a cap for a gal who started to lose her hair from chemotherapy. He was happy to assist her with his talent. He came by my office every day and shared the weather forecast. He would give me a "thumbs up". He made his rounds every day, visiting many of the workers here. He was always happy and willing to share a "hello". He is already missed. Deepest sympathy to all of his family from his Jamestown "family". He was always excited to tell us when one of you called to visit with him and he enjoyed that very much.
