

Weston C Kirschmann

January 5, 1954 - January 4, 2014

Weston C. Kirschmann, 59, Bismarck, died January 4, 2014. Services will be held at 1:00 pm Wednesday, January 8, at Legacy United Methodist Church, 4600 Durango Drive, Bismarck, with Rev. Peter Jones officiating. There will be no visitation. Cremation has taken place. Wes was born to John D. and Luella Kirschmann on January 5, 1954. He grew up in Bismarck where he met the love of his life, Debbie Schauer. In 1977 they married, and fourteen years later, he had the joy of becoming a father. He was a kind and gentle soul, succeeding in each role he played throughout his life. Wes was a caring father, a faithful son, a loyal brother, devoted husband, and hardworking man. His articulate mind combined with charisma made him an excellent publicist and entrepreneur alongside his father, J.D. and brother, John. Together they embarked on various projects with their family business, Kirschmann Manufacturing. Wes loved to walk his dog, ride his motorcycle, and never hesitated to lend a helping hand to friends, family, or strangers alike. Wes will be greatly missed by all who survive him. He is survived by his daughter, Katie; three sisters, Lavone Dunne, Jiselle Kirschmann, and Gayla Kirschmann. He was preceded in death by his wife, Debbie; his brother, John; niece, Brittany; and his parents.

“ We were so very sorry to hear of the passing of Wes in to his heavenly home at such a young age. Neice Luella always spoke with such fondness for him, as she did all of her children. We will continue to have your family in our thoughts and prayers that the Lord will give you strength as you face these sorrowful days. Our love to all of you. “ I have known Wes since we were 12 years old and in all the years he was always kind, funny, generous and a good friend. I am so sad to say goodbye, but I picture him and Deb walking in the glorious fields in heaven, pain free and happy. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ "Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? ..... No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us. And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow -- not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below -- indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord" Romans 8:35 - 39 May God bless you and comfort you as you go through the loss of Wes, he will not be forgotten and the people he touched throughout his life will always be better for knowing him.
